

CAMDEN CRICKET CLUB

November 2009

Dear Camden C.C. Member

While cricket is still relatively fresh in our mind after the 2009 season, I have come across an opportunity for members of Camden C.C. to get new cricket kit for the up and coming 2010 season. I have met a generous person that is willing to sponsor Camden Cricket Club anonymously. The sponsor was initially only wanting and financially able to sponsor the first team, however we have agreed to subsidise all the members of Camden C.C. This is a fabulous chance for the club to get some smart new gear at very much reduced prices. At the same time this provides us with the opportunity for all members to feel integrally part of the club no matter what team they are playing for. This is a once off offer, so feel free to make the most of it.

As you will see in the attached documents, there are playing trousers, playing shirt, cap, sleeveless playing pullover, sleeved playing pullover, warm-up shorts, warm-up shirt, tracksuit, and a hoodie available to purchase. You can either order the:

- 1) Playing trousers, playing shirt, cap in a playing package for a total sum of £20
- 2) Or you can order the playing package with your choice of individual items for a sum of £20 plus the cost of the individual items
- 3) Or you can order individual items for their individual price
- 4) Or you can order all of the items for a total kit package of £90

All of these items would normally retail at a total price of £217.

Regarding sizes, what you order is what you will receive; you cannot change your item size with me once orders have been sent away in December. There is an attached recommended size chart from the manufacturer.

However, this deal comes with a requirement. I will not be giving out any kit unless the payment is given to me in full with an acknowledgement from your captain that the total subs amount for the 2010 season has been paid. There will be no exceptions, if you have not paid your subs and the cost of your kit, you will not receive your kit! All kit should be available by the first game of the season.

Can you please place your orders by mail, and include your phone number with the order so I can talk to you in person if there is any confusion. I will confirm your order by phone call, so if you don't receive a phone call by December the 22nd I have not received your order!

If you know anybody that is or will be a member of the club in 2010 that may not receive this email can you please forward it onto them?

The cut off date for ordering these items will be December the 22nd!

With regards

Matthew Thomas
